Students and staff members will not be discriminated against as provided for in the Alberta Human Rights Act or the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

PURPOSE

That the Board will provide an environment in which students with diverse sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression feel welcome.

The Board is committed to:

- supporting inclusion of all students and staff in all aspects of school life, irrespective of their actual or perceived sexual orientation or gender identity;

In this policy, all references to persons with diverse sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression will include, but are not limited to, “sexual or gender minority” persons or LGBTQ+ persons including lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, transsexual, two-spirited, intersex, queer or questioning persons, persons who are labeled as such (whether they are or not), and persons with immediate family members who identify as a sexual or gender minority.

Discrimination is the denial of individual rights and freedoms in a manner which contravenes the Alberta Human Rights Act, Canadian Multiculturalism Act and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

No person shall discriminate “because of the race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation of that person...” according to the Alberta Human Rights Act (Section 4). (Code A) beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation. It may involve abuse of authority, but does not include the legitimate exercise of an individual's supervisory or administrative authority.

It includes, but is not limited to, behaviours such as unwanted touching (e.g. pinching, patting, rubbing), leering, sexist jokes, the display of sexually suggestive material, derogatory, or degrading comments, sexually suggestive gestures and unwelcome propositions, innuendoes, demands or inquiries of a sexual nature. Unwanted sexual advances, unwanted requests for sexual acts, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment.
